

Poultry Orientation Mission

Taking into account the opportunities for Dutch companies, the Embassy decided to arrange a Poultry Orientation Mission to Almaty. The city of Almaty was chosen in terms of its central location and logistics wise position towards neighboring southern regions and cities. We plan to invite local poultry factories and farms from the city of Almaty, Almaty oblast, city of Chimkent, Turkestan oblast, etc.

The Embassy of the Kingdom of the Netherlands is pleased to invite you to take part in the Dutch Poultry Orientation Mission in Almaty, Kazakhstan on 15th of May.

The one day orientation mission will target the following sectors across the whole poultry value chain, including:

1. Breeding: suppliers of hatching eggs and day-old chickens;
2. Hatching: manufacturers of hatchery (incubation) technology;
3. Poultry housing: housing systems, ventilation and climate control, feed and watering systems, manure and waste management solutions;
4. Poultry feed and healthcare: producers of feed milling equipment, suppliers of feed, premixes, vitamins, medical preparations for poultry;
5. Poultry processing: manufacturers of poultry processing technology, machinery for egg grading and packing;
6. Knowledge transfer and practical (management) training.
